Employment-Language-Mentoring Project (ELM)
For International-Educated Professionals
– A Funded Program by Citizenship and Immigration Canada

You can make a difference to Canadian workforce! Join us to utilize and support the well-qualified International-Educated Professionals (IEPs).

Co-organized by Association of Chinese Canadian Entrepreneurs (ACCE), Centre for Information and Community Service (CICS) and Chinese Professionals Association of Canada (CPAC), the ELM project is a funded program by Citizenship and Immigration Canada aim to help immigrant professionals find and retain jobs commensurate with their qualifications and skills.

We would like to invite your company to support this project by offering a 35-hour volunteer job-shadowing opportunity and/or workplace training to the International-Educated Professionals. What you need to contribute is your time and guidance. You can help to break the “No Canadian Experience, No Job; No Job, No Canadian Experience” dilemma, and eliminate significant barriers that are experiencing by the IEPs.

Please kindly review the enclosed project description and consider to support this worthwhile project. If you require further information, please do not hesitate to contact Isa Lee, ELM Project Associate, at 905 479 2802, or via email at info_acce@yahoo.com. Any Inquires about ACCE, please visit www.acce.ca. Looking forward to your favorable response.
