Guest Speakers: Mr. Kevin Au-Yeung and Ms. Sheri Allain

Kevin Au-Yeung, President of InnoVision Holdings Corp.
(Winner of the 2014 ACCE Best International Business Award) Website: www.ivcorp.com

Kevin is passionate about creating scalable businesses involving high quality products with elements of innovation, so he decided to leverage his family background in clothing and accessories and founded InnoVision Holdings Corporation. Under the various subsidiaries in the InnoVision group, the company designs, manufactures and distributes own branded apparel and licensed apparel products to international and domestic markets. One of the subsidiaries, Nobis Inc., is a designer and manufacturer of premium fashionable outerwear and accessory products and have emerged and grown into an international brand and is currently available in over 30 countries. Many celebrities such as Johnny Depp, NHLers, Olympic medalists, and the royal families wear Nobis products, and the Nobis brand are regularly featured in many media including international magazines, TV dramas and movies. Fan Ink limited, another fast growing subsidiary, is an international sports licensed apparel and accessories company that recently been have granted global rights for licenses such as 2014 FIFA World Cup, 2015 FIFA Womens World Cup and other world renowned soccer clubs.
