- Guest Speaker: Mr. Matthew Leppanen
Director of Product Management, Unified Communications and Collaboration Rogers Enterprise Business Unit

Matthew Leppanen is the Director of Product Management in the Enterprise Business Unit at Rogers Communications and is leading the strategy and development for the Unified Communications portfolio. He has been in telecommunications for over 16 years, the majority of which has been spent developing new solutions that transform the way we communicate. He is a graduate of the University of Toronto and also a Carrier Ethernet Certified Professional.

You will learn how businesses can begin working in a fully mobile way, freeing up employees from the desk phone while becoming more collaborative, productive, and providing customers a better experience. The 150 gram office is your smartphone and this is the future of all business communication.
